Christ-centered Drug & Alcohol

Who We Are

Mountain Ministries was started in 1999 by Gary and Fay Miller as an outreach to people on drugs.

Our goal is to restore lives that are being destroyed by alcohol and drug addictions. This transformation will begin with the establishment of a healthy relationship with Jesus Christ and then with society at large. We believe that only as a person is set free of their destructive addictions can they break negative habits and relationships. This work is accomplished in cooperation with the power of God and is an ongoing process. We expect that after a year at the Mountain Ministries Ranch, residents will be able to return to society as productive, healthy citizens.

All our staff at Mountain Ministries work on a volunteer basis. None of our budget is paid in wages. Typically the cost of a live-in drug and alcohol program is quite high. We believe God to provide finances to not only house those that come to us, but to empower them through Jesus Christ to have a new addiction free life. We accept people that have no way to pay for the cost of most programs. Cost to operate comes from people like you who believe in what God is doing here.

What We Do

Mountain Ministries Ranch follows strict guidelines and applies Christian principles that teach people to live responsible lives. The majority of the people we help have struggled with drugs and alcohol.

Healing begins when someone realizes that they need God and that they can have a true and wonderful purpose in life. This is what we are all about. This program can help those suffering from life threatening addictions. If someone you know is currently struggling with life threatening addiction, please call the numbers listed.

This is a one year residential treatment program for women and women with children, designed to give them the opportunity to:

- Learn Basic Life Skills
- Learn Parenting Skills
- Building Healthy Relationships
- Learn how to Rely on the Lord
- Receive Biblical Counseling
- Attend Bible Study Groups

Testimonies

By the time I was 16, I realized I was a junkie, sticking needles in my arms. I lived by the example I grew up with...sex, abuse, drugs, and survival was all I knew. My brother was in the Mountain Ministries Program for men and I saw how it changed his life. I was at the end and had nowhere to go. I believe God lead me to "The Mountain." Now, I'm 23 and God has changed my life through His Son Jesus Christ. He showed me how to live a life pure, holy, and free and with abundance I never knew before. I have a real life as a new person. "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (2Co 5:17 AV) I no longer walk in the past, I look to the future.

I grew up in a family where there was a lot of abuse, drugs and abandonment which lead me to be a very angry and depressed teenager and adult. I moved out when I was 13 because my parents were too busy doing drugs and fighting to parent me. I was in abusive relationships over the next seven years. I had a son and tried to raise him. I thought I was doing good but I was also doing drugs, depressed and hurting. I wasn't a very good mom. I met Ryan when my son was a couple years old. We married, had a daughter, bought a house, cars and tried to be a family. My husband accepted Jesus as his Savior and I got mad. I knew of God but didn't have a relationship with Him. In 17 years of addiction, I did a lot of different drugs and felt meth was going to do me in. I was depressed, angry and unstable, pretending to be OK. But all of sudden everything went in a downward spiral. We lost our house, our cars, and our family. What took me 28 years to destroy, God restored during my time at the Mountain. I hadn't had any contact with my kids for over 4 years. My husband and children wrote to me and visited me during the time and eventually moved up on the Mountain to be with me. I am happy to be the wife and mother God has called me to be. I love Him so much. "Trust in the LORD with all your heart; lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct your paths." (Proverbs 3:5-6)
